Dear Mr. Stets:

Thank you for your kind words and the materials you sent. I appreciate your concerns and welcome your suggestions.

During this time of great consequence, I am grateful for your support as my Administration continues to reform domestic programs, secure our homeland, and work to create opportunities for all Americans. Again, thank you for taking the time to write.

Sincerely,

Dear Scott:

Thank you for your kind words of encouragement. I am proud of all that we have achieved over the past three years, and I am confident that the progress we have made will lead us toward a more secure, more prosperous future.

As my Administration continues working to move our nation forward, I am grateful for your support. I hope you will stay involved in the issues that affect us as individuals and as a nation.

Sincerely,

Bill Clinton
